

THE PHOTOPHON NEWS

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

ENGLAND.

Feet of the Cabinet—Disraeli's Election Programme—Mr. Gladstone's Election Programme—Mr. Gladstone's Election Programme.

LONDON, June 14, 1898.

It is generally understood that the Ministry will make an appeal to the country on the question of issue between them and the House of Commons. The following is the programme which the government has decided upon—Parliament is to be dissolved in October. Writs will then be issued for the elections, which will take place during the month of November, and on the 9th of December the meeting of the new Parliament will take place.

It is announced that ex-Governor Eyre, of Jamaica, will contest the seat of John Stuart Mill, the member of Parliament from Westminster, London, in the coming election.

PORTUGAL.

American Naval Repairs.

LISBON, June 14, 1898.

The United States steamer Shamrock, returned to this port in consequence of having sprung a leak, has completed her repairs and sailed for New York.

TURKEY.

Foreigners as Landed Proprietors.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 14, 1898.

The Sultan and his new cabinet are making a plan to permit persons of foreign birth residing in Turkey to legally hold property, which right is to be guaranteed by treaties with foreign Powers.

BELGIUM.

The Farragut Banquet.

BRUSSELS, June 14, 1898.

A grand banquet was given to Admiral Farragut and the officers of his staff last week by the United States Minister, Mr. Sanford. The officers of State of Belgium were present.

GERMANY.

Count Bismarck's Health.

BERLIN, June 14, 1898.

The statement has been made and is now authoritatively confirmed that Count Bismarck will retire from office for a period of three months, solely for the restoration of his health, which has been greatly impaired.

MEXICO.

More Secession Reports from the Northern States of Mexico—Gloomy Aspect of Affairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13, 1898.

The steamer Montana brings one hundred and sixty thousand Mexican dollars from Mazatlan. Reports were prevalent there of a scheme for the secession of the Northern Mexican States. Foreigners give a gloomy description of the condition of the country.

OREGON.

The Democratic Majority in the State—The Heaviest Vote Ever Polling—Complexion of the Legislature.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13, 1898.

A despatch from Oregon reports that the majority for Smith, democrat, for Congress is between twelve and thirteen hundred. The official count in the counties near to Idaho give unexpectedly large democratic majorities. The total vote of the State was nearly twenty-two thousand, the largest ever polled in the State. The Senate stands, twelve democrats, ten republicans; the Assembly, twenty-eight democrats to nineteen republicans.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Election Returns—The Democrats Ahead.

CHARLESTON, June 14, 1898.

The election returns, now complete from the thirty-one districts of South Carolina, indicate that the radicals have carried fifteen and the democrats sixteen districts.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Homeless in Philadelphia—A Man Knocked Down and Fatally Injured for Jeopardizing Making an Unfeeling Remark—He Dies in a Few Hours.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14, 1898.

Yesterday afternoon, as the steamer from Smith's Island, a pleasure resort in the middle of the Delaware river, was crossing over to Chestnut street wharf, there was some contention among passengers, owing to the crowded condition of the boat. A large number of children was aboard, and one passenger, named Newton Stewart, made use of an expression that if the children were drowned there would be seats enough for men and women. The remark, though unfeeling, was only used in a jocular way; but when Stewart reached Front and Chestnut streets on his way home he was approached by the father of one of the children, who in a great state of excitement rushed up to Stewart and cried, "You would drown my children."

In the face, which felled him to the earth, Stewart's head came violently in contact with the railing of the boat, and he fell, fatally injured. He died a few hours afterwards at the station house, after bleeding profusely from the mouth and ears. His assailant, who made his escape, wore a velvet cap and a large black moustache. Deceased was very respectfully connected, but did not live with his wife since he served in the late war. He is represented as having been a quiet, inoffensive man, and, until a recent period, given to the use of ardent spirits. Late in the afternoon he came into his father's estate and spent $500 during the past week on spending.

A Man Stabbed and Badly Wounded in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14, 1898.

At about one o'clock this morning Henry Jackson was stabbed in the right side by a man named Buck. In the lower part of the city, and seriously wounded. Buck surrounded himself with a police officer and the wounded man was taken to the hospital.

Death of Timothy Heenan from the Effects of His Wounds.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14, 1898.

Timothy Heenan died at the Pennsylvania Hospital at four o'clock this (Sunday) afternoon in consequence of the wounds received in the attack on Friday at midnight. His brother, John O. Heenan, was with him yesterday and to-day. The coroner's inquest will be held on Tuesday.

CALIFORNIA.

Departure of the Golden City from San Francisco With $250,000 in Treasure.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13, 1898.

The Pacific Mail steamer Golden City sailed for Panama to-day, carrying 233 passengers and $250,000 in treasure for New York.

CUBA.

Sugar Market—Provisions—Freight—Lumber—Trade—Exchange Quotations.

HAVANA, June 13, 1898.

The following are the closing prices of merchandise for the week ending to-day—

The sugar market is dull and prices are nominal. Molasses market is active and prices are firmer.

Freighters are declining; exports inactive; per box sugar to Northern ports, $1.75 a $2.00; per hhd. sugar to Northern ports, $5; per hhd. sugar to Southern ports, $4; per hhd. sugar to Southern ports, $3.

Lard, 17.50c a 18c, in three, and 19.50c, in 25 lbs. Bacon, cured at 17.50c, per lb. Ham, plain, cured at 17.50c, per lb. and 21c, for sugar cured. Lard, 17.50c, per lb. Potatoes, 10c, per bushel.

Lumber is abundant at $25 per 1,000 feet for white pine, and $22 for pitch pine.

Grain—On United States, in currency, 25c per cent discount; in gold, long sight, 15 per cent discount; on Paris, 2 per cent discount.

FIRES.

Extensive Paint Factories in Woburn and the Orphan Girls' Home at Newton Centre, Mass., Destroyed.

BOSTON, Mass., June 14, 1898.

The extensive paint factories of Henry Wood, Sons & Co., in Woburn, Mass., were burned this morning, causing a heavy loss, against which there is an insurance to the amount of $75,000.

The Orphan Girls' Home at Newton Centre was destroyed by fire about three o'clock this afternoon, when the inmates were at church. A barn belonging to the establishment was also destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The loss is not ascertained.

WEST POINT.

Arrival of the Annapolis Cadets and Their Vessels—The Diplomas to Be Awarded To-day, and the Grand Hop to Take Place To-night.

WEST POINT, June 14, 1898.

About ten o'clock this morning the naval cadets, numbering about three hundred and twenty, arrived in their vessels—the Savannah, (fourteen guns), the Macedonian (sixteen guns), and the Dale (ten guns). The vessels were towed up the stream by the tugboats, and dropped anchor opposite this place near the new landing. The cadets seem to be in very good spirits and are very desirous of visiting the Post to-day, but they will not be allowed to go ashore in a body until to-morrow, when they will be received by the cadets of the Academy with all the honors. The vessels are in splendid condition, notwithstanding the fact that they experienced very rough weather during their seven days' voyage from Annapolis. The decks shine like polished steel and everything is in shipshape order. The authorities here called on the commander of the squadron this afternoon and were received with great courtesy, although no gunpowder was noisily used as a salute to-day being Sunday, and the middle of the month.

The following is a list of the officers of the Savannah—Lieutenant Commanders—E. O. Matthews, commanding; Ed. Terry, ex-officio; G. C. Remey, S. B. Greene, J. O. Keane, W. E. O'Brien, W. S. Smith, J. H. Cooper, Surgeon—J. C. Nelson. Paymaster—F. F. Foulson. Chaplain—Mr. McLaren.

The names of the Macedonian and Dale were published in the Herald this morning. The diplomas will be awarded the graduating class to-morrow by General Grant, and an oration will be delivered by Professor Caple, Secretary of the Board of Visitors. To-morrow night the grand hop will be held in the Mess Hall, at which the middies will assist.

Arrangements for the Reception of the Visiting Middlemen.

WEST POINT, June 14—S. P. M.

The formal reception of the middlemen will take place to-morrow. Many of them obtained permission to go ashore to-day, and have been returning in the most brotherly manner with the cadets, who are extending to them every courtesy of which they are capable. The blue and gray jackets are seen in pairs in every nook and corner of the post, while the officers of the Academy, the following order relating to the reception was read at parade this evening—

SPECIAL ORDER, NO. 68.

HEADQUARTERS, WEST POINT, N. Y., June 14, 1898.

First—In honor of the arrival of the middlemen of the United States Naval Academy, the middlemen of the United States Naval Academy will be received by the middlemen of the United States Naval Academy at the post.

Second—The Academy and military staff will assemble at the Superintendent's quarters at eleven A. M. to-morrow to receive the middlemen. The Board of Visitors, the officers of the Academy and navy visiting at the post are hereby invited to be present.

Third—The examination and all academic duties will be suspended to-morrow.

At half-past two in the afternoon the entire corps of cadets will go to the post and receive the middlemen, when, after being received with all the honors by the fleet, they will escort the middlemen to the parade ground. On their arrival the ceremony of receiving the middlemen will be held and the oration delivered.

The cadet graduates are ordered to remain here until the middlemen are received in the post and the middlemen are received in the post and the middlemen are received in the post.

The graduating sermon was delivered to-day by Professor French. It did not materially differ from that of previous years, and consisted simply in advising the cadets to do good and avoid evil.

RIOT IN THE FOURTEENTH WARD.

Serious Assault on Police Officers.

At 121 Mulberry street, the police report, a liquor store kept by Matthew Reynolds is a resort of desperate and dissolute characters, who, of course, have very little regard for law or life. Yesterday morning Reynolds was being arrested by Officer McNamee, of the Fourteenth precinct, when he turned upon the officer and beat him badly. Officer Kelly went to the assistance of his fellow-officer, and between them they managed to get Reynolds to the station, where he was held to answer for the assault in $200 bail.

Last night when he was engaged, as reported, in slighting the Excise law by dispensing whiskey when Officer Lyman attempted to arrest him. But Reynolds was too much for the officer and the latter rapped for help. Officer Kane answered the call, as did also a number of roughs and desperadoes of the neighborhood, and these latter set upon the officers and handled them very roughly. Word was sent to the station house, and Captain Garland, with a platoon of men, hastened to the scene. Their arrival attracted a large crowd of men, women and children who, in this case, were not only not hostile, but actually sympathized with the officers, and who did not consider very much as to the mode of demonstrating their antipathy, and other parties were arrested, but could not be identified as ringleaders in the assault, and were, therefore, released. Officers Hildebrand and Lyman were very severely injured, and the latter was taken to the hospital. Captain Garland doubled the patrol in the vicinity of where the fight occurred, and the officers were well prepared to meet and handle any attack that might come on them.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

Base Ball Notes.

There has been a great deal of talk about Mr. Macdarmid's umpiring in the Union-Vale game. The Yale folks think that he was correct in his judgment; the Union folks think otherwise. He may have made some errors, but the Union should not have lost their temper and loosed their tongues on the field. They know where to apply for redress if injustice had been done.

A game between the Dartmouth and Amherst College nines was played at Belknap Falls on Saturday for the champion ball of colleges, which was won by the Dartmouth Club, the score being 47 to 20.

To-day the ball players in this neighborhood are anxious, no doubt, to hear from the tournament between the Atlantic and Southern clubs, for the United States against Canada. It is almost certain that the Canadians will lose the game and their friends their money.

The clerk of the National Association has made a mistake, and he has been sleeping. "Infer in blissful repose." Mr. Clerk, for arrangements have been made for the following:

MATCHES TO COME OFF.

June 15—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 16—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 17—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 18—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 19—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 20—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 21—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 22—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 23—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 24—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 25—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 26—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 27—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 28—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 29—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

June 30—Union, of Morrisania, vs. Star, on the Capitoline grounds, at three P. M.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.

Southern Conservatives for Chase.

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 8, 1898.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

Who will support the Chief Justice in the Southern States? I answer, emphatically, all the conservative voters, including particularly the "old time whigs." What, then, is the duty of the democratic party? It is evidently to unshackle itself and with burnished armor enter the great contest upon a platform which will secure the votes of the reconstructed States and of true republicans in the other sections of the country. What shall the platform be? In a general sense, simply to recognize the new phases of the political condition and conform, not to the behests of obsolete issues, but to the striking overtures presented by the new situation. The great overture point to the fundamental doctrine that the government consists of three co-ordinate departments, whose powers and duties have been made sacred by the interpretation of the framers of the constitution and of those who lived in the light of its principles. The reconstruction (such as it is) of the South must be admitted as a completed fact, and no attempt should be made to reverse the policy which culminated in negro suffrage, but a distinct amendment should be made that no state shall be admitted to the Union until it has accepted the constitution in its entirety. In a few years the white element will largely preponderate and be composed of citizens from every State of the Union, who will not be deterred by every question affecting the interests of their race. It is the mere folly to assert that the negroes can ever control the South in any sense of the word. The negro is a man, and as such he has the right to vote, and as such he has the right to hold office. The negro is a man, and as such he has the right to vote, and as such he has the right to hold office. The negro is a man, and as such he has the right to vote, and as such he has the right to hold office.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market. The platform should not be equivocal upon the subject of the national debt. Unlike the republicans, it should clearly state what is meant, so that when the question goes before the people it will require no explanation, but be so plain that even the ignorant negro can understand. Let it declare that the bonds should be paid in gold interest and which should be paid in national currency, according to the demand of the market.

RELIGIOUS.

Presbyterian Revision Meeting.

Addressed by Rev. Drs. Crosby, Adams, Rhoads, Smith and Others—The Resolutions.

Sensible of the importance of the movement inaugurated by the two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church recently in session, which had in view an organic union of the two Churches commonly known as the Old and New School, John O. Green, William E. Dodge, Abner L. Ely and a number of other invited ministers and members of these branches of the Presbyterian Church to meet last evening for prayer and conference in relation to the proposed basis of reunion at the church of Rev. Dr. John Hall, corner of Fifth avenue and Nineteenth street. The attendance was very large.

Rev. John Hall, D. D., presided.

Rev. Dr. Crosby then offered a fervent prayer.

The presiding clergyman said it gave him pleasure to preside over such a meeting and to be in the midst of the honored gentlemen who were present this evening and who would address the audience. The object of this